Navient Loan Forgiveness Suit Isn't Preempted, Workers Say

03/21/19

Selendy & Gay, representing a class of public servants, recently opposed Navient Corp.'s motion to dismiss. In October of 2018, Selendy & Gay filed a class action lawsuit against the loan servicer alleging that the company misled borrowers from accessing Public Service Loan Forgiveness in order to boost its own profits.

Read full article

Attorneys
- Faith Gay
- Maria Ginzburg
- Lena Konanova

Practices
- Class Actions
- Non-Profits and Not-for-Profits