

Sean Baldwin and Philippe Selendy Named to the National Law Journal's 2019 List of Trailblazers

05/01/19

Sean Baldwin and Philippe Selendy were recently named to the prestigious National Law Journal's 2019 Plaintiffs' Lawyers Trailblazers List. Baldwin and Selendy are two of 25 attorneys to be recognized by this national list honoring attorneys who continuously innovate in all aspects of plaintiff-side litigation.

The annual list recognizes plaintiffs' attorneys who serve as agents of change in their practice. In their profiles for the National Law Journal, Baldwin and Selendy, known for their work in complex securities matters, discuss their plaintiff-side victories against large banks and financial institutions. In discussing their core practice, Baldwin and Selendy discuss the creation of Selendy & Gay, and their efforts to eschew from the traditional law firm model and create a collaborative environment to best serve their clients.

View Attorney Spotlights

Attorneys

- Sean Baldwin
- Philippe Selendy

Practices

- Private Equity & Hedge Funds
- Securities & Structured Finance