

New York Law Journal Recognizes Temidayo Aganga-Williams

10/04/23

Selendy Gay Partner Temidayo Aganga-Williams was awarded the title of Rising Star by New York Law Journal, which recognizes the region's most promising lawyers under 40. Aganga-Williams brings strong government credentials to his representation of clients facing complex government enforcement actions, internal investigations, congressional oversight, and high-stakes civil litigation. Recently, his thought leadership on the criminal investigations facing former President Trump has been featured in media outlets such as CNN, MSNBC, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, Financial Times, Politico, and Law360.

New York Law Journal also profiled his work, highlighting his commitment to furthering the public interest through his leadership positions, pro bono efforts, and civic work.

Prior to joining Selendy Gay, Temidayo served as Senior Investigative Counsel for the House Select Committee to Investigate the January 6th Attack on the U.S. Capitol and as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Criminal Division of the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York.

Attorney

- Temidayo Aganga-Williams