

Crain's Recognizes Jennifer Selendy and Philippe Selendy as Notable Litigators & Trial Attorneys

03/24/25

Selendy Gay founding partners Jennifer Selendy and Philippe Selendy were named among the “2025 Notable Litigators & Trial Attorneys” by Crain’s New York Business. This highly competitive list recognizes talented New York attorneys who are shaping precedent and advocating for their clients across industries and issues.

Both partners were acknowledged for numerous representations in high-profile matters. Most notably, they were recognized for leading a $1.1 billion trial victory last year on behalf of the former shareholders of Auris Health, a revolutionary robotic surgery startup, in a merger earnout dispute with Johnson & Johnson. The precedent-setting award was hailed as the largest in Delaware history in an earnout case.

In addition, Crain’s applauded Jennifer and Philippe’s active commitment to their communities, profession, and public service.
