

Selendy Gay Named a "Women-Forward Workplace" by Crain's New York Business

April 23, 2025

Selendy Gay was named a “Women-Forward Workplace” by Crain’s New York Business in the publication’s 2025 “Women of Influence” program, which honors influential leaders who are driving progress for women in workplaces, industries, and communities across New York City.

The firm was recognized for understanding the needs of its female employees and implementing women-forward initiatives to address them. Crain’s cited the firm’s market-leading parental leave, family-building benefits, and pro bono advocacy for women’s rights.
