

Lauren Zimmerman Named to “2025 Curve Power List”

04/24/25

The Curve Foundation named Selendy Gay Partner Lauren Zimmerman to its prestigious “2025 Curve Power List,” which highlights LGBTQ+ women and nonbinary individuals who are shaping culture, policy, and social change across North America.

An experienced commercial litigator, Lauren was recognized for her outstanding leadership in and out of the courtroom. The foundation underscored her work in the fight against book censorship in Florida, her service on the board of Access Justice Brooklyn, and her support of the Human Rights Campaign.

The Curve Foundation champions and spotlights stories of LGBTQ+ women and their roles and contributions in society. The foundation honored Lauren alongside other influential leaders in the legal, arts, entertainment, sports, sciences, and other sectors. Click here to read the full list of honorees.
