

Maria Ginzburg Named to “Notable Women in Law” List by Crain’s New York Business

02/23/26

Crain’s New York Business named Selendy Gay partner Maria Ginzburg to its “2026 Notable Women in Law” list. This prestigious list recognizes leading female attorneys in New York for their professional achievements and commitment to the community.

Maria was acknowledged for representing clients in their most complex, high-stakes matters and multi-billion-dollar commercial disputes, including her current representation of UMB Bank in a $6.7 billion contract dispute against Bristol Myers Squibb.

In addition, Crain’s applauded Maria’s pivotal role as Managing Partner of Selendy Gay during a 3.5-year period of extraordinary firm growth, as well as her commitment to serving on the board of the Ronald McDonald House NY.
