

Jennifer Selendy Named a Crain's New York Business 2026 Notable Leader

08/10/26

Crain's New York Business named Selendy Gay Founding Partner Jennifer Selendy to its 2026 Notable Leaders in Accounting, Consulting & Law list. The list recognizes leading New York professionals for their achievements, leadership and impact in their fields.

Jennifer was acknowledged for her distinguished litigation career, including recently co-leading the team that secured and defended an $811 million judgment for the former shareholders of Auris Health in their earnout dispute with Johnson & Johnson, the largest earnout-related damages award in Delaware Chancery history.

In addition, Crain's recognized Jennifer's leadership as a co-founder of Selendy Gay, as well as her commitment to advancing women's education through the 30 Birds Foundation.
