

2021 ABS East Conference

12/13/21

Partners Josh Margolin and Jordan Goldstein will be featured speakers at the 2021 ABS East conference in Miami, FL. The conference brings together leading practitioners from structured finance, who will discuss key developments related to asset-backed securities.

Goldstein, a former deal attorney who now specializes in complex financial products litigation, will be discussing the emergence of litigation finance as a securitized asset class, along with the market's view of the business and legal landscapes. His panel, "Pandemic Recovery Assessment: Trends in Underwriting and Structures," will take place on December 13 from 1:45 - 2:30 pm.

Margolin, a veteran litigator with broad expertise in securities and complex financial products disputes, will be speaking on the "ESG HUB: Applications to MBS" panel. His panel will be held from 2:30 - 3:15 pm and will examine reporting requirements and developments for green and social bonds, among other topics.

To learn more about the ABS East conference, or to register, please visit here.

Attorneys

- Jordan A. Goldstein
- Joshua S. Margolin

Practice

- Securities and Structured Finance