

Temidayo Aganga-Williams Featured in Australian TV Documentary on Trump Investigation

07/23/24

Partner Temidayo Aganga-Williams was featured in the documentary “Investigating Trump, Project 2025, and the Future of the United States” produced by Australian Broadcasting Corporation (ABC) Television. Released as part of Four Corners, Australia’s premier investigations documentary series, the piece explores Trump’s first term, the January 6th attack on the Capitol, and his 2024 presidential campaign through the eyes of insiders.

Temidayo, who served as Senior Investigative Counsel for the January 6th Committee prior to joining Selendy Gay, joins several other government and campaign officials in the documentary to go inside the investigation into Trump’s incitement of the attack and the potential implications of “Project 2025,” Trump’s blueprint for a second term.

Attorney

- Temidayo Aganga-Williams