

Selendy Gay Earns Expanded Recognition in Chambers USA 2026, with New Bankruptcy Litigation Ranking and Firmwide Advancements

06/04/26

Selendy Gay, the premier law firm for complex and high-stakes financial disputes, has once again been recognized in the 2026 edition of Chambers and Partners Chambers USA.

Selendy Gay was recognized among leading law firms in General Commercial Litigation and White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations, while also earning a new ranking for Bankruptcy Litigation. The 2026 guide further recognized several Selendy Gay partners as leaders in their respective practice areas and commended the firm for the strength of its litigation bench and its ability to navigate complex, high-stakes disputes across practice areas.

One client commented to Chambers:

"Selendy Gay's lawyers are truly experts at their craft. They have a deep knowledge of the law and of litigation. The team's ability to understand complex topics quickly and explain them in a way that decision makers understand is a true strength. The team is accessible and knowledgeable at all levels, offering consistently proactive client service."

"These rankings reflect the strength of our litigation platform and the results our teams continue to deliver for clients facing complex, high-stakes matters," said managing partner, Kelley Cornish, "Our clients' most important challenges rarely sit within a single practice area, and these recognitions reinforce that we are built to handle them all."
