

---

News

News

- Joshua Margolin Discusses Making Partner at Selendy & Gay Amid Depression Battle
Partner Joshua Margolin spoke to Law360 Pulse about his battle with depression, what finally moved him to get help and how to reduce the stigma of mental illness in law.
May 7, 2021
- Broad Group of Public Health, Housing and Policy Experts File Briefs in Support of New York's Rent-Stabilization Laws
Over the past two years, Selendy & Gay has defended the constitutionality of New York's fifty-year-old rent-stabilization framework. Recognizing the importance of the framework, a diverse array of groups from around the country have filed amicus curiae ("friend of the court") briefs in support of the laws.
April 26, 2021
- Selendy & Gay Looks to Post-Pandemic Litigation Future
Founding partner Philippe Selendy spoke with Reuters about managing through a pandemic and Selendy & Gay's "exceptionally busy year" ahead.
April 20, 2021

Events

- New York City Bar's Litigation Funding Working Group Reveals New Report
Jordan Goldstein, head of the disclosure subcommittee of the New York City Bar Association's Litigation Funding Working Group, will join a panel of fellow members for a live webinar to discuss the Group's newly released report.
January 26, 2021
- 2020 & Beyond: Diversity in the Legal Profession Forum
On November 10, Managing Partner Jennifer Selendy will join a panel of industry leaders to discuss diversity, equity and inclusion in the legal field.
November 10, 2020
- The Constitution on the Edge
Join Caitlin Halligan, Jennifer Selendy and a panel of experts for an incisive discussion of the proposals to pack the Supreme Court, the debate over whether to consider the confirmation of nominated judges and justices in the months leading up to a presidential election, and the origins and current vitality of the Electoral College.
October 30, 2020

Publications

- Is the United States a 'Safe Harbor' for Financial Institutions in Non-US Insolvency Proceedings?
Writing for Offshore Red, Ester Murdukhayeva and Evan Bianchi explain why offshore practitioners should take note of recent US Bankruptcy Court rulings in Fairfield and scrutinize the Bankruptcy Code's safe-harbor provisions before employing any strategy to pursue clawback claims in the United States.
April 21, 2021

- Whether as a Sword or Shield, a Proactive Press Strategy Is Essential for Every Litigation Plan
Understanding the power of the press is a critical part of a well-rounded litigation strategy. Writing for the New York Law Journal, Faith Gay and Megan Larkin explore three steps litigators should follow to develop an effective press plan, and explain why the days of “no comment” are over.
April 5, 2021
- Biden May Tame the Crypto Wild West. Why That’s Good for Investors.
One concern for crypto investors has been the lack of regulatory oversight. To remedy that, regulators must answer key questions: How should crypto assets be classified, and which government actors can best provide supervision?
March 18, 2021

Awards

- American Lawyer Names Jordan Goldstein a Litigation "Trailblazer"
Partner Jordan Goldstein has been honored as a litigation "Trailblazer" by The American Lawyer.
May 4, 2021
- National Law Journal Honors Joshua Margolin as "Plaintiffs' Lawyer Trailblazer"
With a history of successfully representing plaintiffs in commercial disputes, partner Joshua Margolin has been equally active in social justice causes. In recognition of his longstanding record, Margolin was recently named a "Plaintiffs' Lawyer Trailblazer" by The National Law Journal.
May 3, 2021
- Faith Gay & Philippe Selendy Named 2021 Lawdragon Legends
Faith Gay and Philippe Selendy have been recognized as “2021 Legends” by Lawdragon, an honor given to just 32 lawyers nationwide.
April 15, 2021